FAQs

UOPX was founded in 1976 and has been continually accredited as an institute by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) since 1987.

Where is UOPX located?

Online – 24/7/365, employees can go to class any time of the day or night, minimizing conflict with work commitments.

Can I transfer credit from other institutes to UOPX?

Yes! UOPX will evaluate previous credit(s) and even offer a Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) designed to help you save money and graduate faster. Have your on-the-job training, workplace certifications, military service, and life experiences evaluated for potential college credit at no cost!

What types of degrees does UOPX offer?

UOPX degrees and certifications are aligned to 300+ occupations with over 100 programs mapped to real-world careers. <https://www.phoenix.edu/degrees/find-your-program.html>

What does a normal semester at UOPX look like?

UOPX does not run on a semester schedule. Instead, courses are offered continually and are completed in 5-weeks.

Are UOPX courses covered under our Lennox Tuition Assistance (reimbursement) program?

Yes!

What resources are available to help me understand the cost of my education?

Once you've chosen your degree program, you can complete a financial plan that will estimate your potential costs.

Tuition per credit:

- Undergraduate (Bachelor's) = $398 per credit hour
- Graduate (Master's) = $698 per credit hour
- Graduate (PhD) = $810 per credit hour

Where can I find further information about Lennox's Tuition Assistance?

Log into BenefitSource and search Tuition.

Who is eligible for Tuition Assistance?

US- or Canadian-based, non-bargained employees of Lennox. Participating employees must be enrolled in an approved course of study at an accredited college or university that is directly related to a current or desired Lennox position.

Does our Tuition Assistance program cover books and fees?

Yes! Lennox will provide eligible employees with tuition assistance for certain costs (including tuition, books, and lab fees) for successfully completing classes.

What is the maximum amount of Tuition Assistance?

Lennox provides Tuition Reimbursement up to $5,250 per year for approved undergraduate coursework and up to $10,000 for approved graduate coursework.

Tuition assistance at UOPX may cover:

- 8 bachelor's level courses, or
- 8 master's level courses, or
- 5 PhD level courses

Any courses completed beyond this will be billed in accordance with UOPX's financial policies.

Do we have an agreement with other online universities?

Not at this time.
